Celebrate Oktoberfest at Indiana Beach September 5 through September 7

Last Chance to visit as 2009 Season comes to an end

Monticello, IN., August 28, 2009 – Indiana Beach Resort is gearing up for its final weekend with Oktoberfest – the park’s annual fall festival and celebration of German food and culture to close out the season. Indiana Beach Resort’s Oktoberfest will be held Labor Day Weekend, September 5, 6 & 7, 2009.

Experience all the Bavarian fun at Indiana Beach as the Skyroom restaurant is transformed into a German Festhaus with tasty German fare, oompa bands and more. Join in all the festivities on Indiana Beach's Boardwalk by participating in a grape stomping contest or testing your skill by not spilling a drop on the beer slide.

A visit to Indiana Beach’s Oktoberfest would not be complete without experiencing all the exciting rides and attractions featuring 6 roller coasters including the one of a kind Steel Hawg inverted roller coaster, with the steepest drop in the United States.

The weekend festivities are topped off with gigantic fireworks display lighting up the skies over Lake Shafer on September 6 at 9:45pm. Also on Sunday night during Oktoberfest, Indiana Beach will also be holding its Dollar Ride Night when all individual rides cost only $1.00 per ride per person from 6:00 pm until park closing at 10:00 pm.

Indiana Beach Oktoberfest 2009 operating hours are Saturday and Sunday 11:00am until 10:00pm EST and Monday, Labor Day September 7, 2009 11:00am until 8:00pm EST.
